Laying Down One's Life

“Greater love has no one than this, to lay down one's life...” John 15: 13

On the recent Martin Luther King holiday, I watched a television program on the life of Dr. King. At the time King was killed, I was a child, and so all I knew of him was fuzzy memories from news stories and what I had read in history books. What impressed me from the recent documentary was how young King was when he took up the struggle for civil rights. He was only in his mid-twenties when he helped to lead the Montgomery bus boycott. Up to that point he had been in graduate school and preparing to follow in his preacher father's footsteps as pastor of his home church. And he was only 39 years old at the time he was killed, having been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize and helping to pass civil rights and voting rights laws here in the US.

Dr. King was a natural leader and an eloquent speaker and writer. I've been very inspired reading some of his messages and watching films of his speeches. And he was famous and had spoken to large crowds and met with U.S. Presidents and international leaders. But his life was not easy and his goal was not personal glory. He was doing the work that God had given him to do, and he and his family suffered many hardships. Though he led nonviolent protests, he and his associates were the objects of others' hatred and violence. King himself had been beaten, jailed, his home bombed, and he received death threats every day. He was sure that he would be killed one day, and yet he refused to abandon the work that he believed God was directing him to do. He laid down his life for the cause of justice and equality for black Americans.

For whom or what would you lay down your life? Is there a cause, an idea, or a person or people so dear to you that you would be willing to die for them? This month we enter the church season of Lent. We travel again with Jesus in his last days of earthly ministry as he made his journey to the cross. Jesus also was a young man doing the work that God the Father had given him to do. Jesus was nonviolent, a preacher and a healer, and yet he was the object of others' hatred and violence. He knew he would be killed one day, and yet he bravely set his face to go to Jerusalem and carry out God's plan for him, laying down his life and then rising again, for the salvation of the world.

There's an old tradition of giving up something for Lent. Laying down one's life does not only mean physical death but also living in a sacrificial way. Caregivers who look after a spouse, a child, the elderly and the disabled are laying down their lives for others. Police, firefighters and people who do service work to protect and help others, are laying down their lives. As a follower of Christ, what is God calling you to do? Are there selfless actions, big or small, that God is directing you to do in order to spread God's love and justice and work for good? No one knows how much time we have, but let us use our time for good purposes. As Dr. King wrote, “We must use time creatively, in the knowledge that the time is always ripe to do right.”

God bless you and guide you, Pastor Deanna during the Lenten season. We hope this will be an inspiring and meaningful time together as we share in our Christian journey.

LENT BEGINS ON ASH WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2024

In February we enter the season in the Christian year known as Lent. It is a time when we remember the earthly ministry of Jesus and prepare ourselves spiritually to observe his crucifixion followed by his glorious resurrection on Easter. You are invited to attend a series of worship services during Lent this year, preceded on several evenings by soup suppers.

The theme for our Lenten services is "Onward: Following the Example of Christ" based on a series of dialogue messages written by E. Morris Pierce. Each week we will explore how we can follow Christ's example in a different area of our lives.
Topics will include the areas of temptation,
faith, love, strength, power and humility.

What has a bigger impact than a trio of 300 lb linebackers bearing down on a quarterback? YOU!! The Souper Bowl Of Caring is a national movement working to fight hunger in our communities around the time of the Super Bowl football game.

At our Churches from now until February 11th, we will be collecting donations of canned soups and crackers, and monetary donations for our local food shelves. Let's team up to tackle hunger in our communities!!

"Lord, as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those who are without a bowl of soup to eat."

UMCOR Sunday February 18, 2024

The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) is a lifesaver for many around the world. The number of needs increases every day with natural disasters, conflicts, diseases, famine... and the list goes on. UMCOR is ready to help with your support.

The UMCOR Sunday offering underwrites UMCOR's administrative costs. The offering allows UMCOR to use 100% of all funds given to humanitarian response and recovery efforts directly to communities in need. These gifts ensure UMCOR can respond swiftly to disasters in the US and around the world and as a source of hope and healing for those left most vulnerable.

Through your generous gifts, you share the goodness of life with those who hurt. Please make checks payable to your church and write "UMCOR" in the memo line. Thank You.

CONGRATS TO ALL FOUR MAPLE LEAF PARISH CHURCHES...

on 100 percent payment of apportionments for 2023!! Our apportionments relate much to our share of mission giving and for a variety of ministries on a state, national and world wide scale. Our apportionment along with numerous UM churches throughout the world share the Good News of Jesus in a variety of ways.

This money also goes to support many UM institutions, schools, colleges, etc. We did it for 2023! All Four Maple Leaf Churches can be very proud of this accomplishment. To God be the glory!

Faith UMC Fall Mini Market History

(More Mini Market History)

Rollers and Friers

The year is 1990 and doughnut making is about to begin. Friday afternoon, October 12th, Hope Briggs, Jo Baker, Marion Lingenfelter, and Myrtle Carson mixed eight batches of dough using about 25 pounds of flour. Saturday, the 13th starts early for the "Apple Basket" Mini Market. At 5:30 am, Hope and Maggie Gragert are heating the lard and setting up for rolling and frying. The rollers and friers come at 6:00.

Hope mixed up another 25 pounds of flour making a total of 16 batches- totaling 1600 doughnuts!!! I don't know what the doughnuts sold for but the coffee, doughnuts and other baked goods brought in about $450.00.

A suggestion for the 1991 Mini Market was to fry the doughnuts the day before instead of the early morning of the event. Today we have cinnamon rolls instead of doughnuts and one person bakes them. Our recent bakers have been Vivian Drinkall, Georgie Nolte and Gail Rollie.
